

Legacy Tuition Discount

Immediate family members of students who have earned an associate in applied science degree from Northwestern College, enrolling in a degree or certificate program at Northwestern College are eligible for a 10% Legacy Tuition Discount. In order to qualify for the discount, all admission requirements must be completed, and applicants must provide proof of relation to the graduate by submitting a copy of their Northwestern College diploma, or their transcripts. In addition Northwestern College will extend the 10% legacy discount to siblings attending Northwestern College if enrolled at the same time. These individuals must provide a proof of their relation. All students who are qualified to participate in the legacy tuition discount program are eligible to apply for U. S. Department of Education Title IV funds, but are advised against accepting funds that exceed program charges. Students participating in the Legacy Tuition Discount program are not eligible for additional tuition discount programs or NC scholarships unless specifically stated.

Legacy Tuition Discount Policy

Immediate family members of NC Alumni are eligible for a 10% tuition discount on Northwestern College courses. An alumnus of a Northwestern College program is any individual who has earned an AAS from Northwestern College.

A child of an alumnus who is 25 years old or younger, the spouse of alumnus, sibling, or the dependent of an alumnus as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, is eligible for a 10% discount on Northwestern College courses. This 10% discount applies to a child, spouse, or dependent of an alumnus of a Northwestern College AAS degree program.

A Free Application of Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must be completed each academic year to receive the tuition discount. The discount will not be applied if the FAFSA is not completed.

Legacy Tuition Discount Application must be completed and submitted to the Financial Aid office one week prior to the start of the quarter. The Legacy Tuition Discount Application must be completed each academic year.

Legacy Tuition Discounts do not apply to discounted tuition rates including but not limited to audited classes, intersession classes, summer classes, and online degree completion programs.

Deadline: One week prior to the start of the quarter.
