Daniel Lawrence Memorial Scholarship

The Northwestern College Daniel Lawrence Memorial Scholarship is available to degree-seeking students who are attending school part-time, have accumulated 45 credit hours or more by the end of the spring quarter, and have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher. Applicants must submit an application form and letter of recommendation from a faculty member of their major. Recipients are selected by the Program Director and Program Coordinators of the relevant academic department. Students who qualify are eligible to receive a maximum of $1,200 ($300 each quarter for a maximum of four quarters).

All scholarships are not redeemable for cash, are nontransferable and must be used in conjunction with an associate in applied science degree program. Quarterly application to tuition is automatic as long as a 2.0 cumulative grade point average, continuous enrollment, and part-time status in the declared major are maintained, and there is no outstanding debt to the College. The Daniel Lawrence Memorial Scholarship may not be combined with Northwestern College employee benefits or with any other Northwestern College sophomore scholarship for continuing students.
