EBSCO mobile app!

EBSCO has recently updated their EBSCO Mobile app. Just search for EBSCO Mobile and download it from your Apple or Android store. After that, type in Northwestern College when it asks for an institution, pick NC South Campus Bridgeview, and then login with the same username and password as the databases.

More information about the app is available at the following site:

EBSCO Open Access ebooks

EBSCO is now providing access to an Open Access collection of ebooks. This can be accessed through the app mentioned above or EBSCO’s desktop interface. Publishers included are Taylor and Francis, the University of Michigan Press, and Temple University Press.

Library open on Wednesdays 9 to 4:30 for appointments or drop ins.

Please let your students know the Library is open on Wednesdays in the Summer Quarter for appointments or drop ins if students are on campus.

Please contact Sarah at sdulay@nc.edu about these or any other library resources.
