The College created an Emergency Relief Funds / HEERF Information Page on its website not long after receipt of CARES Act HEERF I funds. That page can be found HERE. It is updated as information on such funds is received from the US Department of Education. Although student CRRSAA and ARP(a)(4) funds were applied for in early 2021, no funds were made accessible to the College until late July 2021. The most recent post (following a 3/25/21 post) includes the following:

9/20/21 UPDATE: Student emergency relief funds under the federal ARP Act recently became accessible. The College's Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III (HEERF III) Policy Committee has been established and is determining the process by which these funds will be dispersed to eligible students. Once the process has been finalized, eligible students will be contacted by email with further instructions.
